

Kathleen M. Bertero

Shareholder

Services: Real Estate, Business, Land Use

Industries: Commercial Real Estate, Construction and Development

Portland 503-598-5554 | kathleen.bertero@jordanramis.com

OVERVIEW

Kathleen focuses her practice on business and corporate law, real property sales and acquisitions, and commercial leasing. She advises businesses and owners in every stage of business, from the formation of an entity to succession planning for the transition of a company's ownership. She also advises owners of real property on the negotiation, documentation, and closing of real estate transactions, and commercial landlords on the negotiation and documentation of commercial leases.

Kathleen's experience includes:

- Entity formation and capitalization
- Corporate maintenance
- Shareholder and member agreements, including buy-sell agreements and operating agreements
- Mergers and acquisitions, including stock and asset purchases
- Succession planning
- Real property sales and acquisitions
- Commercial leasing

An important component to Kathleen's practice is responsive, prompt communication with her clients. She defines and sets goals with her clients to determine the most efficient roadmap to reach the best solution.

Education

- J.D., Loyola Law School, Los Angeles, California
- B.A., University of Oregon, Eugene, Oregon