OVERVIEW

As a litigation paralegal at Jordan Ramis, Linnea Ferrin-Wieczorek works primarily in insurance defense. She works closely with the firm's attorneys and clients on automotive, hospitality, resort, and commercial liability claims. Linnea has helped defend numerous small businesses and large companies with legal issues ranging from slip and fall claims to liability. Her experience also includes wrongful death cases and catastrophic accidents.

Before joining Jordan Ramis, Linnea was a senior litigation paralegal for 12 years at a large litigation law firm in downtown Portland, Oregon. Prior to working as a paralegal, Linnea helped create two community courts in the Portland metropolitan area. She was not only involved in the development and research of the courts, but also traveled to national hearings and meetings with other national community court judges and administrators.

Linnea has a strong work ethic with incredible attention to detail and enjoys the investigative part of her work. She believes that clear communication and providing regular updates are key in working with clients. Outside of working at Jordan Ramis, Linnea enjoys staying active with her family whether they are hiking, snow skiing, or taking the occasional golf trip in Hawaii.
